These are the children of Donald (Rugh 'na jajkin) Macaulay. There are other Macaulays in South Uist and on Benbecula, who are all of the original family. One of these was P.M. Angus Macaulay, of the Lovat Scouts in W.W.I and well known as one of the foremost pipers. He had a Pipe shop in London. He emigrated to New Zealand after W.W.II. He was in demand as a piping judge and instructor. His father was George Macaulay and lived at Nuntown, Benbecula.

The Curries were also related through the Macaulays. Duncan was my piping teacher. He and his brother James lived together in Glasgow. Their brother Anthony remained on the croft in Loch Carnan close to the old Macaulay home.

The MacInnes (Father Allan's people) were also close relations and lived near by at Loch Carnan.

Mrs. MacDonald (Donald MacDonald's mother) of Vancouver, was a Macauly and a close relation. She was raised by Anthony Currie in Loch Carnan.

CATHERINE MORRISON (nigh 'an Iain oġ)

Angus and Catherine met when they worked on the small island of Vatersay, near Barra. Vartersay was then all one farm, tennant of Lady Gordon Cathcart, who also owned Barra, and South Uist. Vatersay was later broken up into small crofts about 1890.

Angus and Catherine went out to Greenock and were married there. Mary, our mother, was born there. Later they moved to Glasgow where Angus worked as a docker (longshore man).

The Morrisons of South Boisdale had a large family. Two sons, and nine daughters, this is the reason we have so many relations on this side of the family, and they all had families; many in Canada.

ANN = JOHN MORRISON - They came to Wopalla Sask. about 1851. Ann lived to be about 100 and died in Regina Sask. Donald Morrison of Vancouver was one of this family. Donalds son Doug married Catherine MacInnes and they live in Vancouver Donalds other son, Leo is a bachelor.

There are also many more related to us through Iain O'g Morrison. As you can see there was much intermarrage between the Morrisons and other branches of the family.

THE CAMPBELLS

MORAG CAMPBELL = DONALD (Rugh 'na ja,kin) Macaulay

Morag Campbell was born at Peters Port at the South East corner of Benbecula. A pier was built there but seldom used as many small islands and one large island, Wiay, obstructed the entrance to the pier. There would be easy communication to Loch Carnan by small boat, many of our relations are in both places.

NEIL CAMPBELL - had a store at the pier. We don't know much of his family.

DUNCAN CAMPBELL - was a shoe maker and had a shop at Strome, Benbecula.

MORAG ANN CAMPBELL - stayed at our place in Glasgow during W.W.I & was a cousin from Peters Port.

RODERICK CAMPBELL - was from Sout Boisdale, was a famous Bard and Poet. he had a book of songs and poems printed. His nephew also Rodrick Campbell, (The Case) was a well known composer of songs. He was a deep sea sailer and sailed out of Vancouver for a time.

CAPT. ANGUS CAMPBELL - with his family, lived in Vancouver for a time. He he died before W.W.II and his family returned to Paisley, Near Glasgow. He is remembered for wrecking his ship off his old home port, Peters Port, although it was a very dangerous port.
